

Expression of Interest (EOI) – Container Refund Point Nambour

Container Exchange (COEX) are seeking Expressions of Interest (EOI) from parties wishing to operate a Container Refund Point (CRP) in Nambour.

COEX is responsible for managing Queensland's Container Refund Scheme, Containers for Change, which aims to reduce litter and increase recycling by providing a 10-cent refund for each eligible beverage container returned to a CRP.

The successful CRP will be based at one of the following areas:

- Burnside
- Coes Creek
- Highworth
- Image Flat
- Kulangoor
- Nambour
- Parklands
- Perwillowen
- Rosemount
- Town Mountain
- West Woombye
- Woombye.

The suburbs have a combined population of more than 22,000 residents within a five kilometre radius. COEX encourages interested parties to put forward innovative operational, community and social solutions to service this catchment.

If you're interested in making a difference by facilitating recycling and fundraising opportunities in the local community, please submit an EOI which includes:

- preferred CRP location
- CRP operating model (e.g. bag drop, depot, mobile)
- relevant experience providing exceptional customer service.

Please submit your completed EOI to tenders@containerexchange.com.au by 3 pm, Friday 13 March 2020.
