

Expression of Interest (EOI) – Container Refund Point Darra

Container Exchange (COEX) are seeking Expressions of Interest from parties wishing to operate a Container Refund Point (CRP) in Darra or immediate surrounding areas.

COEX is responsible for managing Queensland's Container Refund Scheme, Containers for Change, which aims to reduce litter and increase recycling by providing a 10-cent refund for each eligible beverage container returned to a CRP.

The successful applicant will deliver the Containers for Change scheme to residents in the following locations:

- Darra
- Jamboree Heights
- Jindalee
- Middle Park
- Mount Ommaney
- Oxley
- Richlands
- Riverhills
- Sinnamon Park
- Sumner
- Wacol
- Westlake

The suburbs have a combined population of more than 50,000 residents within a 5-kilometre radius. COEX encourages interested parties to put forward innovative operational, community and social solutions to service this catchment.

If you're interested in making a difference by facilitating recycling and fundraising opportunities in the local community, please submit an EOI which includes:

- CRP location
- CRP operating model, including any innovative approach to increasing participation & recycling rates
- relevant experience providing exceptional customer service, and
- commercial operating proposal

Please submit your completed EOI to tenders@containerexchange.com.au by 3pm, Friday 17 July 2020.
